MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES WITH CHARACTER

Organising meetings and conferences can be challenging. We would like to think we make it easy. From the day you book a small meeting or a large conference you will work with one of our team who will be with you every step of the way.

We will advise you which rooms are most appropriate for your event, discuss audio-visual requirements, room set-ups, catering and anything else you need to make your day a success. Our goal is to exceed all your expectations.

Conferences

Hold your Conference in a venue your delegates will remember for a long time. Steeped in history, our flagship building was designed by William Playfair and built between 1829 and 1832. Purpose built facilities have recently been added to provide you with a mixture of old and new, adding character to all we offer:

- Purpose built Conference and Exhibition Centre which blends beautifully with the original Playfair Building and can be yours exclusively for the day.
- 158 seated auditorium with the latest projection facilities and your own personal AV technician.
- Individual voting facilities allowing delegates to vote and give you results on the day.
- 20 Meeting Rooms – traditional and state-of-the-art.

Meetings with More

- A historical meeting room for up to 30 with an endless supply of tea, coffee latte, hot chocolate or cappuccino and delicious nibbles!
- Notepads, pens, a flipchart, jugs of iced water and a bowl of apples
- A light sandwich lunch and fruit platter
- Screen and data projector

All this from £299 for up to 10 people

For an additional charge you can upgrade your catering, to, for example, a continental platter or hot buffet lunch, with freshly made produce – menus are available.

Accommodation

We have a Georgian Terrace 78-bedroom stylish hotel offering preferential rates to delegates situated just across Hill Square. Breakfast can be relaxed, crossing the leafy Square to attend your Conference and the evenings can be spent in our No. Ten Café Bar which serves a selection of wines and spirits and an excellent Dinner Menu.

Social Programme

- Private Gardens for a drinks reception, marquee can be made available
- Dinner in the historic Playfair Main Hall served by our award-winning caterers
- Private viewing of Surgeons' Hall Museums
- Medical Walking Tour commencing at The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh which brings to life the History of Medicine in Scotland's Capital
- Mr Fraser Barbour, a surgeon from 1853, can regale delegates with stories of working as a surgeon at that time. He is available for drinks receptions or as an after-dinner speaker
- Wolfson Hall with its sprung dance floor is the ideal venue for a ceilidh or dinner dance.

Maximum Capacities – available throughout our varied selection of 20 rooms:

Lecture	Boardroom	Cabaret	Classroom	Dinner	Dinner Dance	Reception
300	70	180	170	230	160	500

Doing the Right Thing

The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh provides education and assessment for medical students, surgical trainees and consultants, and supports research to advance standards of care for the future. Surgeons trained and assessed through the College here in Edinburgh bring life-saving and life-changing skills to all corners of the globe particularly in Africa.

Profits from the Hotel and from Events and Functions held on the College’s premises are invested back into supporting the activities of the College and its Fellows and Members around the world. On behalf of surgeons and their patients, we would be grateful if you would consider us when you are looking for a venue.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh in the near future.
